If I Could

If I could but see, again your face,
Oh how much my heart would race,
And nothing could ever efface,
The memory of our last embrace.

If I could climb to Heaven's gate
And just look in to watch awhile,
Then I know I could joyfully wait,
If I could see your happy smile.

If I could hear the song you sing
And your laughter bless my ears,
Then grief would lose its sting
And a smile would dry my tears.

But faith would lose its esteem,
And Heaven would lose its stealth,
So we must be denied this dream,
If Heaven is to keep its wealth.
