The family of the late

Mary Deloris Warren

wishes to express their deep appreciation for your loving wishes and concerns during their time of bereavement. All acts of kindness and gestures made did not go unnoticed. May God richly bless each of you.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

“REFLECTIONS OF LIFE”

Mary Deloris Warren, was born on February 9, 1954 in St. Matthews, South Carolina to the late Mr. Nathaniel Young and Mary Alice Young. God called Mary home to be with Him in His Kingdom on August 10, 2021.

She was educated in the public schools of Calhoun County. An extremely hard worker, Mary was a loving and dedicated caregiver for many, many years. She was loved and cherished by many people and she never met a stranger. If you ever met her, you would never forget her, especially if you made her mad. Overall, she was so much fun to be around.

Nothing meant more to Mary than life itself. She loved her children, and doted on her 1st grandson, Antonio Thelonious Brown, Jr., whom she always called “Her B.” In general Mary loved her family.

Those left behind to cherish her loving and fond memories are: two daughters: Vernay Levena Young of the home and Bridgette Ann Young of Columbia, SC and two sons: Matthews Sentel Warren and Terrell Lavone Warren both of the home; five brothers: Nathan (Ruthalene) Young, Sr. of St. Matthews, SC, Theron (Pricilla) Young of Orangeburg, SC, Larry (Phyllis) Young of Seattle Washington, Stanley Young of High Point, NC and Timothy (Margaret) Young of Orangeburg, SC; three sisters: Virginia (Bernard) Williams of Orangeburg, SC, Mary L. (Michael) Williams and Lanotha (Bernard) Young both of Columbia, SC; ten grandchildren including a special grandson, “T.B.” that she took as her own and loved unconditionally and one great-grandson along with a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews and other family and friends.

MOM

*You're always there to help
No matter what life brings;
To laugh with me, to be proud of me,
And share all the happy things.*

*But even more importantly
You're there when plans go wrong
To help me work things out
When disappointments come along.*

*And so, I want to thank you, Mom,
And tell you lovingly
You are the best thing
Life has given me!*

*You have done your work on Earth,
Now go and take your rest.
You have done your BEST!
Job Well Done!*

Love You always, your daughter, Bridgette

One More Call

No amount of time, days, months or years will go by where I won't think of or miss you. You were more than a grandmother to me, you were my heart, my soul, my world and most importantly, my second mom. I love you with all my heart and hope I was able to make you proud. It will forever be hard to imagine a world without you but the pain eases as I know you no longer have to constantly fight these tough battles and is finally at peace. Know that you are one of a kind in my eyes and could never be replaced. I will give anything in the world to sit down and hear your voice again.

Just know this is not a goodbye moment but an "I'll see you later" moment. I'll love you always and forever until the end of time. You are my Unique, Special and Beautiful Angel.

From your loving grandson, T.B.
