

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me*

*I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too*

*When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love*

*But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne*

*He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new*

*I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past*

*So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart*

Don't Grieve I Ran The Race And Won

Don't grieve I ran the race and won!
Children be happy my time was done.
Don't grieve I ran the race and won, I made it to see the holy one. For those of you that was not mentioned, If you need me you have my attention. Just want all of you to know I love you but I had to go. Don't Grieve I ran the race and won, I'm at peace now the race is done.
Don't grieve I ran the race and won!

OBITUARY

Mr. Robert L. Harrington was born on August 13, 1945 to Mrs. Connie Harrington and Mr. Horace Harrington, Sr. in Bennettsville, South Carolina.

His childhood was a sad one as he lost his mother at a very young age, and he would go on to lose his father too. With no parents, he was eternally grateful to his elder siblings and their spouses for their commitment to caring for and raising him to young adulthood. He knew he would have been an orphan without their love.

As a child, he was educated in the local public school system and finished his formal education at Eastside High School. In his young adulthood, he followed his siblings and relocated to New York. Once there, he found love and married. From this marriage came two children: Lorenzo and Cassandra. He lived and worked in New York for more than ten years before divorcing and relocating back home to his beloved South Carolina. It was here that he found love again and remarried his now widow, Mrs. Pearlene Harrington. From this marriage came three children: Erick, Deymien, and Xavia.

Once in South Carolina, he felt called to follow Christ as a Missionary Baptist instead of Methodist. In 1989, he was baptized at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church by the late Rev. James Glover. He loved baseball, football, and Sunday dinners. While he rooted for USC and Clemson equally, he loved South Carolina State University the most. He never missed watching or listening to a SC State football game. He could tell you exactly what the score was and why.

He transitioned to be with the Lord on the morning of December 2, 2021; he passed peacefully in his sleep.

In his death, he is survived by many of his dear family and fond friends, which include, his siblings: LaFaye Keith, Ethel Boomer, Adam Harrington-deceased, Laila Bennett-deceased, Mildred Foster-deceased, Connie Bennett-deceased, Lenora Peques-deceased, & Horace Harrington-deceased; his special nieces and nephews: Hazel Bennett, John Frank Bennett, Patricia Ann Harrington, Laura Jean Meyers, Jackie Adam Harrington, Mary Ann Peques, George Edward Peques; his wife, Mrs. Pearlene Harrington; his children; and many many others.
