

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe in Me as well. In My Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and welcome you into My presence, so that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.”

John 14:1-4

OBITUARY

Barbara Jean Johnson Coleman, 87, passed away peacefully at her home in Morgantown on November 21, 2021, taking with her to her heavenly home a legendary smile, laugh and distinctive style.

Barbara was born and raised at the family homestead on Long Branch Hollow in the Leonard Oak community to Arvil and Fannie Johnson. After graduating Butler County High School, she was employed at General Electric in Owensboro until, after meeting and marrying her husband of over 60 years, Glendel Ray Coleman, they returned to Morgantown to raise their family. While Glen and his brother David worked building the first of several business ventures, Coleman Brothers Motors, Barbara kept the household running while trying to keep control of three rambunctious sons. Over the years, Barbara became a friend to many, always lighting up the room wherever she went. She loved her family, her church, Cool Springs General Baptist, her neighbors on Bell Street, and the Morgantown community. Anyone who witnessed Barbara driving around town in her red PT Cruiser with her cherished cocker spaniel Harvey knew that she loved life to its fullest.

Barbara, better known as “Gran-Gran” during the later years, was a Christian, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Glen and her beloved brothers Chester, Len, and Laron.

Gran-Gran is survived by her sons, Ron Coleman and wife Cheryl of Spring Branch, Tx, Tim Coleman and wife Shelia of Morgantown, and Mark Coleman of Morgantown; grandchildren, Kristin Garrett and husband Brian of San Antonio, Texas, and Andrew Coleman and wife Shelby of Rowlett, Texas, Chad Coleman of Lexington, Kentucky, Ashley Walsh and husband John of Atlanta, Georgia, Heather Brooks and husband Russell, of Bowling Green, Kentucky,; great-grandchildren, Evelyn and Owen Garrett and Quinn Coleman; Jack, Caitlin, and Cole Walsh, siblings, Mary Ann Johnson of Morgantown, Ben (Gearldine) Johnson of Magnolia, Ky, Keen (Elaine) Johnson of Morgantown, Dwight (Norma) Johnson and Harry Johnson of Auburn, and numerous cousins, nephews, nieces and other family members. A special recognition is conveyed to Barbara’s caregivers “Barb’s Angels” Skylar, Olivia, Kebra, Ava, Jenny, Fran- nie and Tawnya.
