

*Day is done, gone the sun,
From the hills, from the lake, from the skies.
All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.*

Go to sleep, peaceful sleep, may the soldier or sailor, God keep. On the land or the deep, Safe in sleep.

*Love, good night, must thou go,
when the day, and the night need thee so?
All is well. Speedeth all To their rest.*

*Fades the light;
And afar Goeth day,
And the stars Shineth bright,
Fare thee well;
Day has gone, night is on.*

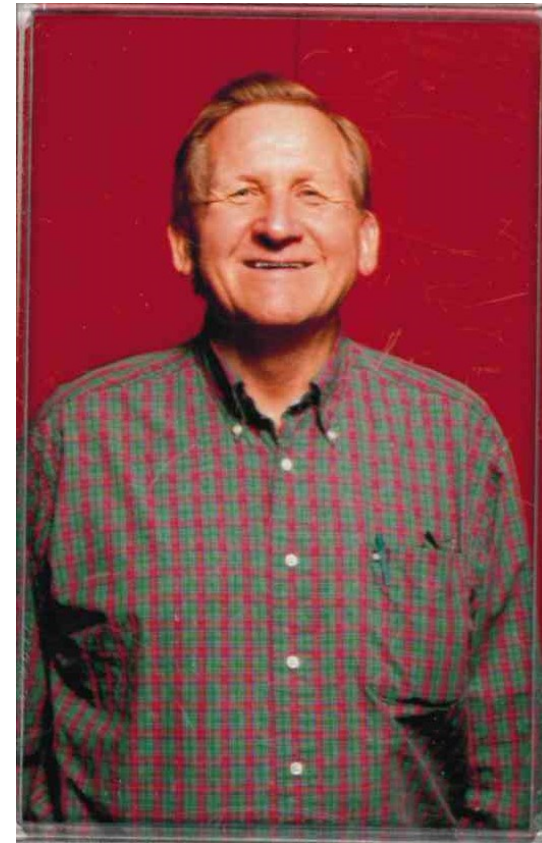

*Thanks and praise, for our days,
'Neath the sun, Neath the stars, 'Neath the sky,
As we go, this we know, God is nigh.*

These Taps Lyrics are the most popular, however several adaptions have been created.

Obituary

Bob Whittinghill, 80, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 10, 2022. The Kyrock, KY native was a son of the late Willard Whittinghill and Janie Elzo Chambers Whittinghill. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Donna Burke, Whittinghill, the love of his life; daughter, Charity Whittinghill; two brothers, Carl Whittinghill and Gary Whittinghill; and sister, Vernita Weinstein.

Bob served in the U.S. Air Force and worked in construction his entire life. Along with his twin brother, Bill, he owned and operated Whittinghill Brothers Drywall for many years. Although his specialty was drywall, he was extremely talented and could fix and do almost anything. He and Bill also founded The Best News Anywhere ministry, which consisted of The Christian Free Drive-In, a Christian video rental store, a website, and a tract campaign. In everything he did, he wanted to point others to Jesus. Bob loved to make people laugh. He was the king of corny jokes and he always had a smile on his face. He never met a stranger and to know him was to love him.

He is survived by his daughter, Sandy Hardin (Dennie) and son, Allen Whittinghill (Holly); grandchildren Shaun Whittinghill (McKenzie), Andrew Hardin, Aaron Hardin, Evan Hardin, Samantha Whittinghill, and Lila Whittinghill; sister Norma Crawford; brothers Sammy, Charles, Bill (Ruth), Glen (Sue), and Darrell along with many nieces and nephews.
