Obituary

Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
-Romans 8:35, 37-39

On June 21, 2020, our beloved mother, grandmother, confidante, and friend, Phyllis "Phiz" Suggs, departed this life, in the comfort of her home in Concord, North Carolina. She was born on August 3, 1949 in New York City, New York, to the late Fletcher Lovett, of Fayetteville, NC and Aileen Suggs, of Rocky Mount, NC.

Phyllis was a proud graduate of E.E. Smith High School, class of 1967. Upon graduation, she decided to further her education by seeking a degree in Business Administration from the University of Houston.

At an early age, Phiz (as she was affectionately called) accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior. As a child, her faith played an important role in her life.

She became a member of Evans Metropolitan AME Church and later attended Harry Hosier United Methodist Church. After overcoming her second battle with breast cancer, she found peace, understanding, and hope through daily messages from Rock Spring AME Zion Church.

Being the driving force that she was, Phiz worked for D103, the local urban radio station in Fayetteville; she set up and maintained displays for the Huffy Corporation; She also worked as a registrar for Atrium Health in Concord, NC. Upon her death, she was working at Cabarrus County Health Alliance, assisting the community with public health resources. She also served as the Payroll Coordinator for Century 21, an after-school program affiliated with Essie Kiser Fox Charter School.

She leaves to cherish her memories: a devoted son, Timothy M. Suggs of Salisbury, NC; three grandchildren, Amir Suggs of Copiague, NY, Isaiah Suggs, and Amaya Suggs both of Kannapolis, NC; a loving aunt, Myrtice Chavis; a host of extended family members, friends, and colleagues.

Phyllis will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her!
