AUNTIE

*We shared so many memories, things only we would know.
You added laughter to my heart and love and blessings to my soul.
You have touched my life in so many ways
by being a wonderful Auntie to me.
Know that you were so very dear to my heart,
and I will miss you more than you know.*

Loving You Always, Joloria

SHE IS GONE

*You can shed tears that she is gone;
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she is gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what Ola would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love, and go on.*

...Until we meet again, The Family

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason
Will change the way I feel,
For no one knows the heartache
That lies behind my smile.
No one knows how many times
I have broken down and cried.
I want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt.
You're so wonderful to think of
But so hard to be without.*

*Forever in my heart,
Butch*

Obituary

OLA MAE MOORE CLARK was born May 16, 1952, to Felton Moore, Sr., and Ellen Moore in Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia. She departed this life on Tuesday, May 18, 2021, at Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, NC, after a brief battle with a reoccurrence of cancer. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph Vernon Clark, who passed away on February 10, 2021, parents, Felton Moore, Sr., and Ellen M. Moore, and sister, Dorothy Thomas.

Ola was educated in the public school systems of Columbus, Georgia, and New York City.

Ola went on to attain her certification in home healthcare, which allowed her to do private duty nursing. After living and working in Brooklyn, New York, for over 53 years, Ola decided to make Fayetteville, NC, her retirement home, where she enjoyed exploring, shopping, and even learned how to drive.

Ola was a faithful member of Country Club Drive Church of Christ in Fayetteville, NC, and was an avid notetaker and active Bible school participant.

Ola is survived by her sisters, Gwendolyn Carter of Fayetteville, NC, and Brendolyn Smith of Columbus, GA; one brother, Felton Moore, Jr. (Jeanette) of Fayetteville, NC; and stepdaughter, Olivia Clark of Brooklyn, NY. "Ola", "Peggy", "Aunt Ola", "Aunt Peggy" will also be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends. Aunt Ola/Aunt Peggy had an especially close relationship with her nephew, Felton Moore III of Greensboro, NC; niece, Joloria Sample of Fayetteville, NC; great-niece, Abigail Sample of Fayetteville, NC; and her goddaughters, Skymadison "Bubbles" Rhodes and Sandrael Patterson of Brooklyn, NY.
