

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me—but let me go
For this is a journey that we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan—
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me—but let me go*

Ms. Christine Harris McDaniel of Ridgeway, SC, entered into eternal rest at Prisma Health Richland on March 23, 2019. She was born on August 17, 1950, to the late English and Annie Murphy Harris.

Christine was like a mother to everyone's child. She was a giving person who was always willing to lend a helping hand. She worked for B.F. Goodrich over 35 years at the Elgin plant. She was a life-long, dedicated member to the James Chapel AME Church family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, the late James McDaniel, Jr.; siblings, Ed Harris, Willie Harris, English Harris, Jr., James Harris, Edna Harris and Beverly Gripper.

She leaves to cherish her memories: brothers, John Harris, Jerome Harris and David (Charlene) Harris, all of Ridgeway, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. A special thanks to LaShawn Murphy and dearly devoted friend, Minnie Gripper.
