

The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around His garden and found an empty space.
Then He looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyes,
and whispered, "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

In Memory of

Helen Jane Bahlmann

July 15, 1938 ✠ March 10, 2020

Entombment

Friday, March 27, 2020 10:00 AM
Kinkead Cemetery ~ Alexandria, Minnesota

Helen Jane (Tauber) Bahlmann was born on July 15, 1938, in Glenwood, Minnesota to James and Christine (Vindedahl) Tauber. She graduated from Glenwood High School and attended a few years of college.

Helen was united in marriage to Darrell Bahlmann in 1966. The couple moved to Minneapolis when Helen went to work for Cargill in the cities. She worked her way up to be the chief credit officer and worked for Cargill for over 30 years, retiring in 1994. After retirement, the couple moved to Lowry to be close to the farm where she grew up. Darrell passed in 2001.

Helen enjoyed flower gardening, feeding birds, reading, working on crafts and puzzles, going on charter bus tours and her Alaskan trip with Karen Tauber. She was gentle, quiet, was nice to everyone, and had a love of animals.

Helen died on Tuesday, March 10, 2020, at the St. Cloud Hospital at the age of 81. She is survived by her brother, James Tauber Jr. in Nelson; sister-in-law, Sharon Tauber of Glenwood, and many nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her parents, James and Christine; husband, Darrell; and brothers, Eugene, Ed, George, Leonard and Paul Tauber; sister, Alice Luetgers and infant sister, Helen Tauber.