Farewell

*I used to sing, I used to shout
'Cause praising the Lord is what it's all about.*

*I used to laugh, I used to cry,
But now it's time to say goodbye.*

*No more doctors, hospitals, or medicine to take,
No more pain, sorrow, or decisions to make.*

*For now I'm in that holy place
Where I can behold Him face to face.*

*For the battle is over and the victory's won,
Come home my child – Thou good and faithful son, well done.*

*Your tasks down here are finished at last,
Where we can only share memories of the past.*

*The Lord has called and I must go,
For we'll meet again one day I know.*

*He's coming back again real soon,
Just get ready, for it may be morning, night or noon.*

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of Deacon Frank E. Price, would like to acknowledge the deepest appreciation of every act of kindness and expression of sympathy shown to us during this time of bereavement. We love you and may God continue to bless you all.

Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.”
— Revelation 21:4

Deacon Frank Elbert Price was born July 6, 1938, in Newberry, South Carolina, to the late Spencer Sam Price and the late Julia Sligh Price. He entered into Eternal Rest on Thursday, November 24, 2016, at Palmetto Health Richland Hospital.

He joined Calvary Baptist Church and served as Chairman of the Deacon Board and was a member of the All Male Choir. Later, he moved his membership to True Light Ministries and Ain't God Good of Clinton.

Deacon Price has not only impacted the lives of his family and friends, but his community as well. By being a contractor, he was able to improve businesses and homes and leave a piece of himself and his work all over South Carolina.

Deacon Price was predeceased by a son, Scottie Elbertson Price; sisters, Donzell Swittenburg, Martha McCullough, Adell Price, Sara Ouzts, Annette Huntley, Willie Mae Gilliam and Shirley Thacker; brothers, Spencer Price, Sim Price and Joseph Price.

Cherishing his memory are his wife of 57 years, Thelma G. Price; sons, Min. Michael Price of Newberry, SC, Mitchell Price (Tracy) of Hamilton, Ontario; Rev. Stanley Price (Ruby) and Bishop Troy Price (Lisa); daughter, Min. Donzella Robinson, all of Newberry, SC; three sisters, Julia Mae Glenn of Buffalo, NY, Elnora Brice of Maryland, Mary Price of Washington, DC; one brother, George Floyd Price of Newberry, SC; seventeen grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Anita Price of Newberry, SC; sisters-in-law, Ida Mae Price of Clinton, SC, Rebecca Price and Marion Gary, both of Newberry, SC; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
