I Am Free

Don't grieve for me now, I am free,
I am following the path God laid out for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
These things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I have savored much,
Good friends, good things, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't spend it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

THANK YOU LORD

Obituary

Master Sergeant James Edward Glenn, known as “Flap”, was born December 24, 1951, in Buffalo, New York, to the late Mrs. Josephine Brown Glenn and the late Mr. Willie James Glenn. He entered into Eternal Rest on Tuesday, December 26, 2017, at Newberry County Memorial Hospital.

He attended Miller Chapel A.M.E. Church. Master Sergeant Glenn was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps and he retired from the Marine Corps Reserve. He served in the Vietnam War and the Gulf War.

Master Sergeant Glenn loved playing basketball when he was growing up. He enjoyed watching his son, Jamarcus, play football and they had fun fishing together. He also enjoyed cooking for his family.

Master Sergeant Glenn had a special place in his heart for his wife, Phyllis, and his girls, La’Precious and Quanesha.

Master Sergeant Glenn was predeceased by a brother, Larry Glenn.

Those who celebrate his life and cherish loving memories are his wife, Phyllis Hodges Glenn, daughters, La’Precious Glenn and Quanesha Glenn, sons, Jamarcus Glenn and Frederick Cooper, brothers, Melvin Glenn and Harold Glenn all of Newberry, SC; two aunts, Mary Alice Parker of Columbia, SC, and Frances Elkins of Newberry, SC; devoted nephew, James Wadsworth; devoted friend, Wayne Pratt, Sr.; six sisters-in-law; two brothers-in-law; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorial Poem

I expect to pass this way but once;
Any good therefore that I can do,
Or any kindness that I can show to
Any fellow creature, let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it,
For I shall not pass this way again.
