Please Don't Say. . .

Please don't say that I gave up,
Just say that I gave in.

Don't say that I lost the battle,
For it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was,
But that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right,
To give the most I could, not less.
Please don't give me wings or halos,
That's for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve,
No extras, just my due.
Please don't give me flowers
Or talk in hushed tones.

Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God, I've made it home.
Thank God for my soul's resting.
Thank God for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me.
Praise God who loved me best.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
For his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
Of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
In the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Expression of Appreciation

Obituary

“Sometimes it’s hard to understand why certain things must be. But there is a reason for it all beyond our power to see. May it comfort us a bit to know the one we love has found eternal happiness and lasting peace above.”

Mr. Calvin Eugene Wise was born in Newberry County to Lillie Mae Lindsay and the late Eugene Bookman and stepfather, the late James Lee Lindsay. He answered the call of God on Wednesday, January 17, 2018, at Newberry County Memorial Hospital.

He received his education in the public schools of Newberry County. He graduated from Mid-Carolina High School. Mr. Wise worked for several logging companies.

Surviving are two sons, Lafayette E. Lindsay and Angelo D. Lindsay; one daughter, Brendette R. Lindsay; mother, Lillie Mae Lindsay; brother, James S. Lindsay; two sisters, Dana Thomas and Michella Young; aunts, Vera Mae Gallman, Sudie Mae Wise and Johnnie Mae Bookman; uncles, David Lee Austin, Henry Ellis Toland, Leroy Bookman (Rozenia) and Terry Bookman (Nita); great-aunts, Martha Ruff, Poly Hampton, Evelyn Brooks and Avie Davenport; great-uncles, Willie M. Dewalt and Aaron Dewalt; devoted friend, Cynthia Miller; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
