Good-Night

Sleep on beloved and take thy rest
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast
We love thee well but Jesus loves thee best —

Good-Night

Calm is thy slumber as an infant's sleep;
But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep
Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep —

Good-Night

Only good-night beloved, not farewell
A little while and His saints shall dwell
In hallowed union indivisible —

Good-Night

Until we meet again before His throne
Clothed in spotless robe He gives His own
Until we know even as we are known —

Good-Night

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of the late Hattie Mae Wright, thank all of our friends for your many expressions of sympathy and love. The prayers, food, visits, phone calls, flowers, cards and all acts of kindness shown during our time of sorrow will always be remembered.

Repentance Prayer

Father, I know that I have broken your laws and my sins have separated me from you.

I am truly sorry and now I want to turn from my sinful life toward you.

Please forgive me and help me avoid sinning again.

I believe that your son JESUS CHRIST died for my sins and was resurrected from the dead;
is alive and hears my prayer.

I invite you to become the Lord o' my life;
to rule and reign in my heart from this day forward.

Please send your Holy Spirit
to help me obey your word,
and to do your will for the rest of my life.

In Jesus name I PRAY,

Amen

Obituary

*You are not forgotten, loved one
Nor will you ever be ,
As long as life and memories last
We will remember thee.*

On March 6, 2018, our beloved Hattie Mae Wright transitioned to her eternal rest at Lexington Medical Center. Born in Newberry County, she was the daughter of Lillie Mae Tribble and the late Willie Marshall. She shared matrimony with James Willie Wright, Sr., for fourteen years

Ms. Hattie Mae, as she was called by many was loved for her humorous, straight edge attitude. She loved everyone she crossed paths with and was always encouraging others. Ms. Hattie Mae had a “green thumb” and took joy in growing her plants, with each one she gave a personal name, “Lord Jesus”, “ Travis”, “Sam Sam” and one named after her mother, “Lilly Mae”. Prior to her health complications, Ms. Hattie Mae was also known for overcoming obstacles and her hard work at Louis Rich, Citation Boats, Newberry College and her dedicated service at Ronnie’s Buffet, in which she found salvation in Jesus Christ there. Ms. Hattie Mae was loved and will be missed tremendously.

She mothered five children, whom her son Travis Lamont Wright, Sr., preceded her in death. Surviving are sons, James Willie Wright, Jr., of Darlington, TX, and Anthony Wright (Marylin) of Newberry, SC; her two daughters, Cecelia Wright of Newberry, SC, and Evangelist Jennifer Williams of Chapin ,SC; along with twenty-four grandchildren.

Hattie is also survived by four brothers, Wayne Tribble, Theodore Tribble, Larry Tribble and Tony Tribble all of Newberry, SC, and her four sisters, Marcia Lee Kinard of Newberry, SC, Maxine Chattman of Norfolk, VA, Nancy Tribble and Diane Goodman of Clinton, SC; three uncles, Joe Louis Williams, Robert Williams and Howard Williams of Newberry, SC; one aunt, Betty Jean Pitts of Newberry, SC; a memorable friend, Hayward Mcullough; special nieces, Amy Tribble and Tawana Whitener; God daughters, Laketha Pace, Shanda Agnew and Lashika Wiggins; and caregiver Daphne Fraizer. She will be missed by a host of other family and friends.

Words from Children

Mama,
Mama we will always carry you in our hearts.
We love you and thank you for all of your sacrifices and unwavering love. We will miss you, but we are grateful, you’re resting with Jesus.
Love You Mama,

Jennifer, James, Anthony, Cecilia
