Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow

Of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve

To dry before the sun

Of happy memories that I leave

When my life is done.

Expressions of Appreciation

We, the family of the late Blanton Lutrell Ruff, extend our deepest gratitude for all of the comforting gestures of love and sympathy rendered during this sorrowful hour. We sincerely thank all of you, including the caregivers. May God continue to shower his blessings and love.

— The Family

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness

For his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley

Of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

In the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

All the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Heaven's Train Ride

I stepped aboard and took my seat,
Everything was beautiful and the aroma was sweet.
As the train began to move I heard the angels sing;
I lifted my head, I didn't want to miss a thing!
Everybody was happy, no one was sad;
My mind relaxed, I was glad.
All the angels dressed in white —
My! What a lovely sight.
The Conductor took care of all;
He listened carefully to every call.
His eyes showed so much love,
I knew He was sent from above.
A light shone around His face;
All I could see was His amazing grace.
I felt so good I wanted to stay,
And let the Holy Spirit have His way.
I had no money and this trip was so nice;
The angels did the singing,
but the Conductor paid the price.
