

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
 And the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little - but not too long,
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that we once shared.
 Miss me - but let me go.
 For this is a journey that we all must take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all a part of the Master's plan,
 A step on the road home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart,
 Go to the friends we know.
 And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
 Miss me - but let me go.

Expressions of Appreciation

We, the family of the late Earline Burroughs, extend our deepest gratitude for all of the comforting gestures of love and sympathy rendered during this sorrowful hour. May God continue to shower you with His blessings and love.

I Just Went To Sleep

I was tired of life and all its cares
The many trials and all its snares;
I wanted to be free of life's sorrows
And long looked forward
to my home of tomorrow;
So I just went to sleep.
I couldn't get around
like I did years ago
I'm tired of the wheelchair
that went so slow;
I didn't care
to stay in the bed all the time
But I wanted to go home
with my family so divine;
And I just went to sleep.
Don't weep, don't mourn,
don't grieve for me at all
I've gone to answer my Saviour's call;
Just meet me in the morning in the mid-air
Where we will all live together
in that city so fair;
I have just gone to sleep.
I know you will miss me,
but my time was out
Longing to see Jesus
and the saints shout;
Forever with Jesus,
you will meet me there,
We will reign with Christ and
the saints everywhere;
I have just gone to sleep.
