

The darkest days are over
And rest has come at last
The morning is it's brightest
With no longings for the past

My ship was in the harbour
Waiting for me to board
To take me home forever
With the Lord

Casket Bearers
Nephews

Floral Bearers
Nieces

Acknowledgment

We, the family of the late Arnold Williams, are grateful to all of you for your comforting expressions of sympathy and love rendered to us during this sorrowful period. We thank God for each of you, for He has come to us through you. May His love and peace abide with you always.

— The Family

Services Entrusted To:

F.B. PRATT & SON FUNERAL HOME
601 South Street • Newberry, South Carolina
(803) 276-1206

Homegoing Services Celebrating the Life of Mr. Arnold Williams

Sunrise
March 9, 1935

Sunset
July 4, 2018

Monday, July 9, 2018
2:00 P.M.

Welch Zion Baptist Church
Newberry, South Carolina

Reverend Dr. Robert F. Kinard, Ph. D., Pastor
Officiating

Obituary

Mr. Arnold Williams was born on March 9, 1935, in Newberry, South Carolina, to the late Bennie Williams and the late Elmira Abney Williams. He entered into Eternal Rest on Wednesday, July 4, 2018, at Newberry County Memorial Hospital.

He was a member of Welch Zion Baptist Church where he was a former Trustee, Assistant Chairperson of the Deacon Board, Assistant Sunday School Superintendent and Teacher, church grounds keeper, church bus driver and retired with the honor of Deacon Emeritus.

Mr. Williams was preceded in death by his siblings, Daniel, Leroy, Sophia Kimble, Irene Patterson, Choicie, Bennie and Roslyn Williams, and Ella Mae Ellis.

Cherishing his memory are his wife, Dorothy Elizabeth Tomlin Williams; daughters, Debra Williams Greenlee of Chicago, IL, Robbin Williams Brooks (John) of Little Mountain, SC, Desiree Williams Boyd of Charlotte, NC, and Amy Peacock (Dexter) of Prosperity, SC; sisters, Hattie Murray of Philadelphia, PA, Martha Thomas and Barbara Jean Williams both of Newberry, SC; brothers, Jonathan Williams (Demaria) of Rock Hill, SC, Tarrance Williams (Denise) of Batesburg, SC, James Williams (Brenda) and Benjamin Williams (Rubie) both of Newberry, SC; eight sisters-in-law; two brothers-in-law; nine grandchildren, Aisha, Kami, Brittany, Brandon, Sean, Marcel, Lyric, Nicholas and Jada; one great-grandchild, Milo; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional Clergy and Family

Final Viewing Family and Friends

Selection

Scripture Readings

Old Testament

New Testament Rev. William Baker
Community C.M.E. Church

Prayer

Remarks

Deacon Leroy Miller Church
Dorothy Williams Wife
Amy Peacock Daughter
Lyric Brooks Granddaughter
Community and Friends

Solo Nicole Taxiltaridis, Niece

Words of Comfort Rev. Dr. Robert F. Kinard

Recessional

Committal & Benediction Graveside

Interment Welch Zion Baptist Church Cemetery
Newberry, South Carolina