

*To Those I Love
And Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone, release me,
let me go;
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself
to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you love; you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love
you each have shown,
But now it is time I travel alone.

So grieve a while for me,
if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.

Tho you can't see or touch me,
I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart,
you'll hear;
All my love around you real and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say ...
Welcome Home!!

Obituary

*“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith...”
— II Timothy 4:6-7*

Mrs. Christina Dorothy Golden Suber was born on September 4, 1924, in Newberry, South Carolina. She is the daughter of the late John and Bessie Anderson Golden.

She graduated from Drayton Street High School and holds a Bachelor’s Degree from South Carolina State University, in Home Economics and Elementary Education.

Christina married Henry Lee Suber, also of Newberry, in 1951. They resided in Newark, New Jersey. Mrs. Suber worked for several years at Westinghouse, the Newark Public Schools and retired as a Home Economics teacher from the Paterson School System. In 1985, she and her husband returned to their hometown of Newberry, South Carolina. Mrs. Suber was a member of Miller Chapel and Meridian Chapter #247 of Order of the Eastern Star. Her husband died in 1995, and Christina continued to live in Newberry until 2008. At that time, she moved to Willingboro, New Jersey, to live with her daughter, Michelle Baynes.

Surviving are two daughters, Sharon L. Suber and Michelle S. Baynes both of Willingboro, NJ; one son, George A. Suber of Waldorf, MD; one daughter-in-law, Melony Y. Suber of Waldorf, MD; five grandchildren, Ramel I. Baynes, Ayanna S. Baynes, Geoffrey K. Suber, JaVaughn H. Suber and Ajanee I. Suber; two great-grandchildren, Annaya M. Baynes and Christian M. Baynes; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
