Everyone's Friend

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.

Sweet to remember her who once was here,
And who though absent is just as dear.
Always so true, unselfish and kind;
Few in their word her equal you'll find.

A beautiful life has come to an end.
She died as she lived – everyone's friend.

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go;

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you love; you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it is time I travel alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part

So bless the memories within your heart.

Tho you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear;

All my love around you real and clear.

And then when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say . . .

Welcome Home!!
