I Am Not There

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond that glints on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rains.
When you awaken in the morning's light,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die!

Acknowledgment

We, the family of the late Lucille Maffett, are grateful to all of you for your comforting expressions of sympathy and love rendered to us during this sorrowful period. We thank God for each of you, for He has come to us through you. May His love and peace abide with you always.

Obituary

*Not a care in the world
They have all dropped away.
I am high in the hills,
I am happy today.
Not a care in the world
I am down by the sea.
With the wind and the waves
Telling me I am free.*

Ms. Lucille Maffett was born December 29, 1922, in Newberry, South Carolina, to the late James Maffett and the late Josephine Marie Smith. She entered into Eternal Rest on Monday, October 22, 2018, at White Oak Manor in Newberry, South Carolina.

Ms. Maffett was an active member of Calvary Baptist Church until her health declined. She was a member of the Usher Board, Sunday School teacher, Usher Board Choir and the Senior Choir.
