To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go;
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you love; you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it is time I travel alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
Tho you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear;
All my love around you real and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say . . .
Welcome Home!!

Expression of Appreciation

A special thanks to all of our family, friends and others for the kindness that has been shown to us during the death of our loved one. Your prayers, visits, cards, calls, flowers and the food were deeply appreciated. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you. We ask that you continue to remember us in your prayers.

Obituary

*“The Lord is my Light, and my Salvation whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life,
of whom shall I be afraid?”
— Psalm 27:1*

Mrs. Bobbie Jo Lindsay was the daughter of the late Mrs. Annie Laura Kirkland and the late Baxter Cooper. She was born September 3, 1954, in Newberry, South Carolina. She departed this earthly life and entered into Eternal Rest on Thursday, December 13, 2018.

Bobbie was a former employee of Louis Rich.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. Annie Mae Hutcherson and Mrs. Mattie Eigner; two brothers, Floyd Cooper and Odell Cooper; and a devoted mother-in-law, Mrs. Laura mae Lindsay Smith.

Those who celebrate her life and cherish precious and loving memories include her loving husband of over forty years, Mr. Harry Lindsay; one son, Mr. Mitchell Cooper (Erica); two grandchildren, Tameka Cooper and Keshawn Cooper; sisters, Phyllis Glen, Ruth Free and Alice Lyles; brothers, Raymond Cooper and Oneal Cooper; step-sisters, Mary Mathis and Ruth Sparks of Ohio, and Vera Wicker of Newberry, SC; step-brother, Tommy Lee Kirkland of Newberry, SC; eleven devoted brothers-in-law; four devoted sisters-in-law; devoted friend, Anna Margaret Chaplin of Newberry, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
