The Measure of A Man

By Chris Soloman

Not how did he die, but how did he live?
Not what did he gain, but what did he give?

These are the merits to measure the worth
Of a man as a man regardless of birth.

Not what was his station but had he a heart?
And how did he play his God given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer
To bring a smile, to banish a tear?

Not what was his church, nor what was his creed.
But had he befriended those really in need?

Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?

Acknowledgment

Much love and appreciation from the Hunter family during this time of sorrow. Friends and loved ones know when you need them most even when you don't know.
