He Is Just Away

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead — he is just away!
With a cheery smile,
and a wave of the hand,

He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you — O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead — he is just away!

Acknowledgment

At a time like this when sorrow invades the heart and home, it means so much to have loving family and friends. Your kindness is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.

Obituary

Like a mighty star, our father’s life has brightened the path of our lives. The glow of his love has cast an eternal brightness over the road to our destination. His place shall be vacant each time we meet, with out stretched hands and loving welcome, he lives in the minds of everyone who knew him.

Mr. Lawrence Jeter, Jr., was born July 25, 1934, to the late Lawrence Jeter, Sr., and the late Bell Jeter. He passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 17, 2019, at Heartland Manor in Union, SC, surrounded by his loving family. Born in Union County, Lawrence was educated in the Union County Public Schools. Lawrence was a member of St. Luke A.M.E. Zion Church. He was a dedicated worker with several construction companies across the country. Lawrence was a member of the Air Force in the late 50’s, and he was the first African American to play in the Air Force Baseball League. In 1958, Lawrence married the love of his life, the late Dora E. Jeter.

“PaPa” as he was affectionately called by his grandchildren, also known as by his friends and family, “Jeet”, Milk, Jr.” and “Uncle June”. Lawrence enjoyed life by attending baseball games, fishing and he was a lover of his community.

Lawrence was the LAST surviving member of his immediate family. Those welcoming him into his Heavenly home are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jeter, Sr.; his brothers and sisters, Roy Jeter, William Jeter, James Jeter, Eliza Jeter Dillard, Emily Jeter Whitener, Luaree Jeter Thompson and Elizabeth Huckabee; and daughter-in-law, Lamatrell Jeter.

Those left to cherish his precious and loving memories are six children, Lorenzo Jeter, Ray Jeter, Cheryl Jeter-Stewart (Charles), Darlene Glenn, Archie Porter and Chazmon Davis. He has four grandchildren, three beautiful granddaughters, Christy Jeter of Whitmire, SC, Madison and Kennedy Jeter both of Newberry, SC, and one handsome grandson, Keegeon Duncan of Lancaster, SC; one sister-in-law, Barbara Dixon (Roosevelt) and one brother-in-law, Charles Sims both of Newberry, SC; and a host of special nieces and nephews that will miss him dearly.
