I Heard Her Prayer
I brought her home to give her peace,
no stress of life she'll bear;
Though tears will fall, I know your grief,
your prayers for help I hear.
I heard her prayer for love
she leaves in restful sleep she has;
I gave to her a home in grace,
in mansions made beyond the sky.
Though sorrow fills your hearts for grief not lost, but found is she.
She ran her race, her work well done,
she's found her rest in me.
So my child when you are filled with pain
from hearts that ache
Please rest assured and know my grace had a purpose in the plan.
And when you long to feel her touch and wish
that she were here
Remember she is safe with me because I heard her prayer.

Acknowledgment

We, the family of the late Charice L. Ragin, would like to express a heartfelt thank you to all acts of kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement. A special thank you to the following individuals, our step-mother, Latesha Carter-Hamilton; grand-mother, Sally Hamilton; our Godmothers, Michelle, Angela, Anita, Talena and Gia; our cousin, Carolyn and family; and a very special aunt, Carol; and the Calvary Baptist Church Family.

Obituary

Charice L. Ragin, known affectionately as “Recie”, was born on October 2, 1973, in Philadelphia, PA., to the late Carrie and John Ragin. Recie was the youngest of three children.

She was a devoted member of Love Chapel Holiness Church. She received her education at the Philadelphia Job Corps where she earned her certification in the health occupational trade and her high school diploma. Recie later moved to Newberry, South Carolina, to fulfill a dream of a better future for her five beloved children. Recie was loved by many. She had a love for singing, writing, gospel music, playing the piano and a special way with words of comfort.

Recie was a loving mother, grandmother and sister to her two siblings.

Recie leaves to mourn her companion, Shawn Price; three sons, Kierre, Khyree and KJ; two daughters, Kaiana and Karrie; granddaughter, Kiera and the prayerful arrival of her unborn grandson; two siblings, Donna and Steve; four nephews, Donnez, Markel, Stephen and Brad; three nieces, Vanee, Melinda and Shairah; best friends, Thomica Mackey and Shawn Hamilton, “father of her two eldest children”; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

*When through our tears of sorrow we see a curtain fall
And know a dearly loved one has gone beyond our call.
We must have faith and confidence in God and in His way
For He will raise the curtain on a fairer scene someday.*
