A Million Times

A million times we will need you,
A million times we have cried;
If love alone could have spared you,
You would have never died.

If all the world was ours to give,
We would give it, yes, and more,
To see you coming up our steps,
And walking through our door.

To hear your voice, to see you smile,
To sit and talk with you awhile;
To be with you the same old way,
Would be our fondest wish today.

A heart of gold stopped beating
Two smiling eyes were laid to rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgment

The family of Roger “Dusty Rhodes” Coleman thank all of our friends for your many expressions of sympathy and love. The prayers, food, visits, phone calls, flowers, cards and all acts of kindness shown during our time of sorrow will always be remembered.

Obituary

Mr. Roger “Dusty Rhodes” Coleman passed away on Thursday, April 25, 2019, at Greer Memorial Hospital. Born in Newberry County, he was the son of the late Johnson Coleman, Sr., and the late Jessie Mae Rutherford Coleman.

He was a member of Pleasant Grove A.M.E. Church. Mr. Coleman was employed with Georgia Pacific for over seventeen years and ISE for over thirteen years.

Mr. Coleman had a big smile and heart and would give candy to those he met. He would give to those in need, if it be food or a ride. Mr. Coleman enjoyed fishing, listening to music, dancing and cooking out with his family and friends.

He was predeceased by his siblings, Henry L. Coleman, Sarah Coleman, Juanita Hare, Carrie Lee Coleman and Johnson “Buddy” Coleman, Jr.

Surviving are his daughter, Kimberly Young (Steven) of Jenkinsville, SC; son, Roger Coleman, Jr., of Sumter, SC; sisters, Georgia Mae (James) Caldwell, Dorothy Lisster, Ida Mae Williams (Sammie), Eloise Coleman and a devoted sister, Lillia C. Maybin all of Newberry, SC; nine grandchildren; caregiver, Teresa Maybin; a son-in-law; devoted friends, Ruby L. Gallman, Ricky Caughman, Thomas Lyles and Mike Taylor; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Uncle

I remember when I was small	You’ve always been right there for us
And you were kind and strong,	In good times and in bad.
You really haven’t changed a bit,	You laughed with us in happy times,
As life has moved along.	And cried with us in sad.
I knew that you were thoughtful,	You are a special uncle,
And today, you’re still the same.	As special as can be.
You’re always helping others,	More than that - you’ve been a friend,
And that has never changed.	A cherished friend to me.
