A Poem For My Grandfather

Dear Papa, a hard working, wonderful man, who left me too soon. I miss you dearly and the hole in my heart for you will remain open. You gave me so much wisdom and guidance I can't thank you enough for that. You taught me how to drive, how to cook, how to protect myself, how to rake leaves, how to use a leaf blower which I don't think I will ever use again. But most importantly you taught me how to love myself. You used to always tell me how good I was at school and how bad I was at home.	You taught me how to respect myself and others. You've always taken care of your family in sickness and in health. You will always have a special place in my heart and I will never ever forget you. I've learned so much from you and I will carry that on as long as I shall live. You are my guardian angel and I will continue to make you proud of me. You will forever live on in my heart. Until we meet again. Love, Little Bit
