

Celebrating 46 Years of Life

My Boo,
 "There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they have gone
 their light still remains."

Love,
 Your Georgie

Expression of Appreciation

We, the family of Mrs. Carolyn Pitts Glymph, would like to graciously thank everyone for their personal and collective prayers, food, visits, calls, flowers and other acts of kindness. Your many expressions of sympathy and love will always be remembered. God bless you all.

Obituary

*“Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was;
and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.”*

— Ecclesiastes 12:7

Mrs. Carolyn Pitts Glymph passed away on Wednesday, November 20, 2019. Born in Newberry County, she was the daughter of Geraldine Pitts Lovelace and the late Marquis de Lafayette.

She was a graduate of Gallman High School and received a Political Science degree from Newberry College. Mrs. Glymph retired from the SC Governor’s Office as a Grant Manager.

Surviving in addition to her mother are her husband, George M. Glymph; daughter, Dana Nicole Glymph (Raymon C. Dobson) of Columbia, SC; sister, Deborah Mickey of Bronx, NY; brother, Reginald B. Lovelace of College Park, MD; grandchildren, Olivia George Glymph Barnes of Columbia, SC, and Daela Arayanna-Malia Dobson of Wilson, NC; nine sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; one aunt; other relatives and friends.

“I have fought a good fight,

I have finished my course.

I have kept the faith.

Henceforth there is laid up for me

a crown of righteousness,

which the Lord, the righteous judge,

shall give me at that day: and not to me only,

but unto all them that love His appearing.”

— II Timothy 4:7-8

Strong Woman

“You may encounter many defeats,
but you must not be defeated.

In fact, it may be necessary to encounter
the defeats, so you can know who you are,
what you can rise from,
how you can still come out of it.”

— Maya Angelou

James 1- 7

Dear brothers and sisters,
when troubles of any kind come your way,
consider it an opportunity for great joy.

For you know that when your faith is tested,
your endurance has a chance to grow.

So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

If you need wisdom, ask our generous God,
and he will give it to you.

He will not rebuke you for asking.

But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver,

for a person with divided loyalty

is as unsettled as a wave of the sea

that is blown and tossed by the wind.

Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord.
