I Am Free

Don't grieve for me now, I am free,
I am following the path God laid out for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
These things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I have savored much,
Good friends, good things, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't spend it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.
THANK YOU LORD

Expression of Appreciation

Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.”

— Revelation 21:4

Mrs. Barbara Jean Elkins departed this life Wednesday morning, January 2, 2020, at the age of 74. She was born July 3, 1945, in Newberry County. She was the daughter of the late Lewis and Louise Caldwell.

She was a member of New Enoree Baptist Church. She graduated from Gallman High School in 1963 and was a textile worker before she retired.

She was predeceased by her husband, Willie James Elkins; and a sister, Mary L. Williamson.

Cherishing her memories are her three sons, Timothy and Cedric Elkins of Newberry, SC, and Reginald Elkins (Tonya) of Columbia, SC; two sisters, Dorothy Greeley of Winston-Salem, NC, and Geraldine Miller (Charles) of Newberry, SC; three brothers, Marshall Caldwell (Lynette) and James Caldwell (Georgia Mae) of Newberry, SC, and Sammy Ray Caldwell of Columbia, SC; seven sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.
