

Goodnight

*I see a light shining far, far away,
And I've decided to follow that light today;
I've done all the work I plan to do,
So I must say goodnight to you.*

*The angels are waiting to show me the way home;
God spared this old life for so very long.
I must go with them, they will not wait;
The Lord is waiting to greet me at the pearly gate.*

*Goodnight my family — I must lie down and rest;
This soul of mine has done its best.
There's no reason to be sad — I am only asleep,
I laid down this morning — for keeps.*

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Surviving is her husband, Wilie F. Gallman; daughters, Harriette “San” Gallman of Columbia, SC, Ruthie Toure (Moussa) of North Dakota, and Aimee Gallman (Flex) of Whitmire, SC; son, Luther Gallman; step-sons, Travis Cohen of Whitmire, SC, and Larry Mont Cohen of Newberry, SC; sisters, Linda Dominick of Newberry, SC, Sharon Stoudemire of Savannah, GA, and Ethel Dominick of Prosperity, SC; brothers, Freddie Dominick of Prosperity, SC, and Louis Gary of Newberry, SC; fourteen grandchildren; five sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; one son-in-law; and a host of other family and friends.

*Afterglow
I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When my life is done.*
