

Casket Bearers
Family and Friends

Floral Bearers
Family and Friends

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Mr. Milton Wallace, Sr., acknowledges with sincere appreciation your understanding, your prayers and all acts of kindness shown at our time of bereavement. We thank God for each of you, for He has come to us through you. May His love and peace abide with you always.

Services Entrusted To:

F.B. PRATT & SON FUNERAL HOME
601 South Street • Newberry, South Carolina
(803) 276-1206

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH CAROLINA

Homegoing Services
Celebrating the Life of
Mr. Milton Wallace, Sr.

Friday, January 31, 2020
1:00 P.M.

Lower Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church
Prosperity, South Carolina

Rev. Michael Harp, Pastor

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH CAROLINA

Obituary

After a long and difficult fight with sarcoma, Milt was rewarded his wings on Saturday, January 25, 2020, at his home with his family that loved and adored him.

During his journey with sarcoma, he never complained. He took every challenge with a smile. He loved spending time with his family. He was always there for whoever needed him and asked for nothing in return. He was a true Gamecock fan. He enjoyed driving his 18 wheeler that he did for over ten years with PSC & C of Lexington, SC, until his health started to decline. He was a dedicated son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, nephew, cousin and friend that will be dearly missed.

When diagnosed with sarcoma on November 30, 2018, he was told his life expectancy was only six to eight months he said, “Life is like playing cards, you can be dealt a winning hand and still lose and you can be dealt a losing hand, but if you play them cards right, you can still win.” He played his cards for fourteen months and he took that losing hand and played it until he won.

Milton was predeceased by both parents.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, a devoted, caring and loving wife of twenty-one years, Gloria L. Wallace; two daughters, Latoria Wallace (Juluis) and Nicole Morgan of Columbia, SC; four sons, Sharoddrick Wallace, Akeem Miller of Greenwood, SC, Milton Tyrek Wallace, Jr., and Tyquil Coleman of the home; two brothers, Stanley Bates (Brenda) and Kelvin Wallace (Bridgette); two sisters, Martha Young (Ronnie) and Angie Praylow (Calvin); four nephews, including a special nephew, Malik Wallace; nieces including a special niece, Stella Williams; nine grandchildren; two devoted cousins, Alice Dorley and Jerry Bates; an adopted brother, Melvin Pitt; one sister-in-law, Telesa Reerse; two brothers-in-law, James, Green, Jr., and Micheal Green; a devoted father-in-law, James Green, Sr.; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends who loved him and cared for him deeply.

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional

Final Viewing

Hymn “What A Friend We Have In Jesus”

Prayer

Solo Tyshun Lucas

Scripture
Old Testament
New Testament

Solo Tara Williams

RemarksPSC & C and Company

Solo Tyshun Lucas

Words of Comfort Rev. Michael Harp

Recessional

Committal and Benediction Graveside

Interment Lower Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church
Prosperity, South Carolina