Momma

A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried.
If love alone could have spared you,
You never would have died.
If all the world was ours to give,
We would give it, yes and more.
To see you coming up our steps,
And walking through the door.
To hear your voice, to see your smile,
To sit and talk to you awhile.
To be with you the old way,
is our fondest wish today.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Two smiling eyes were laid to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only wants our best.
You wished no one farewell,
Nor even said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
To some you may be forgotten,
To others a part of the past.
But to those who loved you dearly,
Your memories will forever last.
