

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a while
 Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
 And hug your sorrow to you through the years
 But start out bravely, with a gallant smile.
 And for my sake, and in my name
 Live on, and do all things the same.
 Feed not your loneliness on empty days
 But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
 Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
 And I, in turn, will comfort you, and hold you near:
 And never, never be afraid to die
 For I am waiting for you in the sky.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul;
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
 For his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley
 Of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparast a table before me
 In the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 All the days of my life:
 And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Heaven's Very Special Child

A meeting was held quite far from earth
“It’s time again for another birth.”

This special child will need much love
His progress may seem very slow,
Accomplishments he may not show.

And he will require extra care
From the folks he meets down there.

He may not run or laugh or play
His thoughts may seem quite far away.

In many ways he won’t adapt
An he will be know as handicapped.

So let’s be careful where he’s sent
We want his life to be content.

Please Lord, find the parents who will
Do a special job for you
And soon they’ll know this privilege given
In caring for this gift from Heaven.

Their precious charge, so meek and mild
Is Heaven’s Very Special Child.
