When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a while please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely, with a gallant smile.
And for my sake, and in my name live on, and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days but fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I,
In turn, will comfort you, and hold you near:
And never, never be afraid to die for I am waiting for you in the sky.*

A Better Place

When loved ones go before us,
We may feel that we are alone.
But remember there is still another life,
We have not yet been shown.
Even though your voice is silent now,
For us to hear no more,
We know God loves you also,
When you reach that other shore.
The memories of knowing you, and loving you
Throughout all these years,
Serves as a constant reminder,
To help us dry our tears.
As time wipes away our tears,
And replaces the smile back on our face.
We realize that your exit from this earth,
Was only to find a better place.
