PaPa, you always have the time to listen even when you were busy. Your wisdom is what makes me want to be more like you. You took care of me even when you were sick yourself, and was there to comfort me because you've been through the same battles. I loved the talks we had about God and politics and the stories of the things you've did and seen when you were younger. I wish I could hug you and tell you how much of a great PaPa you were to me and Bray one last time. And wake you up at 3 A.M. to dance in the kitchen and eat breakfast in the living room together. I just want to let you know now that you're in heaven I'm forever the light to your world. And the many things you've done for me and others helped me know deep down inside how much you really cared. I appreciated all you did and I am so lucky and blessed to have a PaPa like you. I love you so much and I'll see you again. I love you so much, rest easy.

Love,

Haidyn and Braylon
