

The Rose Beyond The Wall

Near the wall a rose once grew;
 Budded and blossomed in God's free light.
 As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
 It came to a crevice in the wall.
 Onward it crept with added strength,
 With never a thought of fear or pride;
 It followed the light through the crevice's length,
 And unfolded itself on the other side.

Shall claim of death cause to grieve,
 And make our courage faint or fall?
 Nay! Let us faith and hope receive;
 The rose still grows beyond the wall,
 Scattering fragrance far and wide,
 Just as it did in days of yore;
 Just as it did on the other side;
 Just as it will forevermore.

Heaven’s Train Ride

I stepped aboard and took my seat,
Everything was beautiful and the aroma was sweet.
As the train began to move I heard the angels sing;
I lifted my head, I didn’t want to miss a thing!
Everybody was happy, no one was sad;
My mind relaxed, I was glad.
All the angels dressed in white —
My! What a lovely sight.
The Conductor took care of all;
He listened carefully to every call.
His eyes showed so much love,
I knew He was sent from above.
A light shone around His face;
All I could see was His amazing grace.
I felt so good I wanted to stay,
And let the Holy Spirit have His way.
I had no money and this trip was so nice;
The angels did the singing,
but the Conductor paid the price.
