

I Am Free By Shannon Lee Moseley

Don't grieve for me now, I am free,
I am following the path God
has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace
at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it now with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemes all too brief,
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now—He set me free.

Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, not crying neither shall there be any more pain.”

Revelation 21:4

Mrs. Lynette Faye Caldwell gained her wings on January 10, 2021, at the age of 67. Lynette Faye Davis was born on May 30, 1953, in Newberry, SC, to the late Henry Washington Davis and late Margaret Louise Davenport Davis.

She was a servant of the Lord and was a member of New Enoree Baptist Church where she served faithfully as a member of the usher board. She graduated from Newberry High School. She married Marshall Caldwell in 1969, and started building their life together in Newberry, SC. They welcomed three children into their home, Davida, Marshall, and Tremelle, teaching each one of them about the importance of faith, family, and giving.

She was a dedicated wife to Marshall for fifty years and passionate mother to her children. If you knew Lynette, you knew she never met a stranger and always offered herself to uplift others. She had a tremendous impact on people because of her spirit and peaceful demeanor and was so loved and she loved unconditionally. She loved everyone and so many referred to her as “Mom”.

She is preceded in death by sisters, Susan Davis Thompson and Loretta Davis Huguenin, of Newberry, SC; and a brother, Henry Davis of Clinton, SC.

Lynette is survived by her husband, Marshall Caldwell; daughter, Davida (Trani) Price of Chapin, SC; sons, Marshall (Leah) Caldwell of Newberry, SC, and Tremelle (Edisa) Caldwell of Hickory, NC; siblings, Debra (Wayne) Eichelberger, Pearl Davis, Eugene Davis, Henry (Cinderella) Davis, Michael (Ruby) Davis and Terry Davis, all of Newberry, SC, and Marion Davis Harrison of Columbia, SC; grandchildren, Nicholas Price, Taylyn Price, Tristyn Price, Suzana Pruitt, Hayden Caldwell, Holden Caldwell, and Harrison Caldwell; and a host of extended family members.
