

Memorial Poem

I expect to pass this way but once;
Any good therefore that I can do,
Or any kindness that I can show to
Any fellow creature, let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it,
For I shall not pass this way again.

Home At Last

There are no words, what can I say.
At last her sweet soul winged its way
To peace and freedom in the sky
Where never again will she suffer or cry
It's all a part of God's Great Plan . . .
Which is a mystery to man.
We cannot understand His ways
Nor can we count our Earthly days
But who are we to question and doubt
God knoweth well what He's about.
He knew she longed to "go to sleep"
Where only angels a vigil keep.
The pain of living grew too great
No longer could she stay and wait.
She did not want to leave you dear
But she had finished her work down here.
So she closed her eyes and when she awoke
These are the words the Master spoke,
"Welcome, dear child, you are Home at last
And now the burden of living is past,
There's work for you in My Kingdom, dear
And you are needed and wanted here."
So weep not, she's just gone on ahead
Don't think of her as being dead.
She's out of sight for a little while
And you'll miss her touch, and her little smile.
But you know she is safe in the home above
Where there is nothing but Peace and Love.
And, surely, you would not deny her peace
And you're glad she has found release.
Think of her there as a soul that is free
And Home at last, where she wanted to be.

Obituary

Ms. Nannie Lee Wise, affectionately called “Granny Nannie” by many, 94, of Prosperity, SC, passed away Friday, February 5, 2021, at Newberry Memorial Hospital of Newberry, SC. She was born in Prosperity, SC, January 17, 1927, to the late Virgil and Louvenia Wise.

She was a member of Lever Chapel A.M.E. Church of Prosperity, SC. She was also a member of Ladies’ Aide #108. Ms. Nannie Lee Wise was a long time employee of the Lowman Home of White Rock, SC, where she retired from. Her passions were cooking, talking to her family, watching TV and serving the Lord. She loved the Lord with all of her heart and exhibited it mostly in her last days through her fight to never give up, and always trust in God’s plan. Her biggest push was her family. She prided herself on her four girls.

She was preceded in death by her sons, Brady and Bennie Wise; her brothers, William Pinkney, Clarence, Ulysses and Tony Wise, along with her sister Annie Mae Wise.

To cherish her memories she leaves behind one daughter-in-law, Mary Nell Wise of Prosperity, SC; her granddaughters, Erika Tiffany Wise of Newberry, SC, and Christy Michelle Wise of Prosperity, SC; one great-granddaughter, April Danyelle Bowers of Prosperity, SC. She also was loved and adored by her care giver, Traci Wise of Prosperity, SC; her loving church member and friend, Debra Caldwell of Newberry, SC; devoted niece, Matilda Lindler of Prosperity, SC; and adopted daughter, Catherine Blair of Newberry, SC.

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me now, I am free,
I am following the path God laid out for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
These things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I have savored much,
Good friends, good things, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't spend it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

THANK YOU LORD
