

Don't talk about me in that quiet soft voice
Don't bring me flowers now that I'm gone
I don't know if God will give me a halo or my wings
But as I closed my eyes I hear Heaven ring
No more long walks on the road
No more late nights starrng at the sky for God has come and lifted me high
Though my body is cold and still you feel my presence
My journey will be long as I ascend to Heaven
So to my family I leave behind, don't worry about me for God has my plan written
The battle I fought was long and hard, it was not for me to win or lose.
So please no sympathy or sorrow because I'm FREE!

Mr. Clarence Eddie Bowers, age 59, passed away on March 2, 2021, at his home. He was born on September 24, 1961, in Newberry, South Carolina, to the late Leon Bowers and the late Gladys Fields Bowers.

He attended Mid-Carolina High School. He grew up playing baseball for the Little Mountain Ruritans. He truly loved playing the game of baseball.

Those who celebrate his life remember him as being flamboyant and very charismatic. He loved to dress nice and listen to music. He also loved to dance.

Cherishing his memory are one sister, Carolyn Bowers of Greensboro, NC; five brothers, Bishop Larry (Patricia) Bowers of Blackstone, VA, Stanley (Joann) Bowers, Sr., and Mikell Bowers, all of Little Mountain, SC, and Bennie Bowers and Bobby (Jackie) Bowers, Sr., all of Newberry, SC; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends who will sorely miss him.
