

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul;
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
 For his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley
 Of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me
 In the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 All the days of my life:
 And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Ms. Gwendella Audriana Lyles, affectionately known as “Precious”, daughter of Loretta Stephens and Milvin Lyles, was born March 6, 1992, in Newberry, South Carolina. She departed this Earthly life and entered in the arms of Jesus on Monday, April 19, 2021, at Prisma Health Greenville Memorial Hospital.

She was a graduate of Shelby High School in Shelby, North Carolina, and furthered her education at Piedmont Technical College where she received a degree in Human Services.

She was predeceased by one aunt, Sharon Lyles; and one uncle, Anthony Stephens.

Cherishing her memory in addition to her mother and father are daughter, Audriana Zynique Glasgow; sisters, Kendra Ameshe’Chaplin, Jalena Taylin Chaplin and Ja’Niyah Lanell Lyles; brothers, Jayden Treyvon Lyles and Jaceon Terron Lyles, all of Newberry, SC; nephew, Xavier Kingston Whiteside; devoted friend, Lajohnda Glasgow; maternal grandparents, Martha Stephens of Newberry, SC, and Robert and Linda Bluford of Mountsville, SC; paternal grandparents, Carrie Lyles of Newberry, SC, and Raymond Robinson of Norfolk, VA; special devoted family and friends, aunt, Ollie Lyles, Debra Gary, Kameena Lyles, Ebony Lyles; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Please Don’t Say. . .

Please don’t say that I gave up,
Just say that I gave in.
Don’t say that I lost the battle,
For it was God’s war to lose or win.

Please don’t say how good I was,
But that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what’s right,
To give the most I could, not less.

Please don’t give me wings or halos,
That’s for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve,
No extras, just my due.

Please don’t give me flowers
Or talk in hushed tones.
Don’t be concerned about me now,
I’m well with God, I’ve made it home.

Thank God for my soul’s resting.
Thank God for I’ve been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me.
Praise God who loved me best.
