

Home At Last

There are no words, what can I say. At last her sweet soul winged its way
To peace and freedom in the sky where never again will she suffer or cry
It's all a part of God's Great Plan . . . Which is a mystery to man.
We cannot understand His ways nor can we count our Earthly days
But who are we to question and doubt God knoweth well what He's about.
He knew she longed to "go to sleep" where only angels a vigil keep.
The pain of living grew too great no longer could she stay and wait.
She did not want to leave you dear but she had finished her work down here.
So she closed her eyes and when she awoke these are the words the Master spoke,
"Welcome, dear child, you are Home at last
And now the burden of living is past,
There's work for you in My Kingdom, dear
And you are needed and wanted here."
So weep not, she's just gone on ahead
Don't think of her as being dead.
She's out of sight for a little while
And you'll miss her touch, and her little smile.
But you know she is safe in the home above
Where there is nothing but Peace and Love.
And, surely, you would not deny her peace
And you're glad she has found release.
Think of her there as a soul that is free
And Home at last, where she wanted to be.
