

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call: I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow: I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief: Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me; God wanted me now,
He set me free.

Obituary

Mrs. Dorothy Ann Jacqueline Moon Wise, affectionately called "Granny" by her family, passed away on Wednesday, July 7, 2021 at her home.

Mrs. Wise was born March 26, 1945 in Prosperity, South Carolina to the late L. S. Moon and the late Ellen Mayers Moon. She was a faithful member of Antioch Baptist Church, director of New Generation Choir and president of Usher Board. She was also a member of Town Council and an active member of the Prosperity Community. She was also a member of Women's Home Aide Society. Mrs. Wise was a former employee of American Fiber and Finishing, Oakland Mill and secretary at Rikard Elementary School.

She was a mother and grandmother to the whole community. Her singing happy birthday to all she knew will forever be one of her best memories. Even if it was her first time meeting you, you still were not a stranger.

Mrs. Wise was predeceased by her husband, Euphrates Wise. Cherishing her memory are one son, Darryl Wise of Prosperity, SC; two daughters, Verna Wise of the home; Kizzie Swittenburg of Greenville, SC; eight grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, one brother-in-law, two sisters-in-law, devoted friends, Sadie Gallman, Dorothy Means, Joann McKinney-Wise and Kay Coleman; other relatives and friends. Mrs. Wise will be missed by so many for being such a "phenomenal woman" by encouraging and influencing others.
