

Loving Memories

Of Glenda

"Miss Me - But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
 And the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little - but not too long,
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that we once shared.
 Miss me - but let me go.
 For this is a journey that we all must take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all a part of the Master's plan,
 A step on the road home.
 When you are lonely and sick of heart,
 Go to friends we know.
 And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
 Miss me - but let me go.

Celebrating the Life Of Ms. Glenda Rae Strother

Ms. Glenda Rae Strother was born November 6, 1957 in Newberry, South Carolina to the late Hubert Strother and the late Lucy Smith Strother. She entered into Eternal Rest on Saturday, August 21, 2021 at Lexington Medical Center.

Ms. Strother was a member of Calvary Baptist Church and a former employee of Kraft Heinz.

Glenda was predeceased by two brothers, Marvin L. Strother and Robert L. Strother.

Those left to cherish her precious memory are two sons, Travis Strother and Tyrus Strother; sister, Jacqueline Harp (Rev. Michael) all of Newberry, SC; two grandchildren and other relatives and friends: devoted companion Danny Shells.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now, I am free,
I am following the path God laid out for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found peace at the end of the day.
If our parting has left a void,
Then fill it now with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I have savored much,
Good friends, good things, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't spend it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

THANK YOU LORD!
