

We'll never forget the lessons
We learned while at your side
While walking through the backyard
Or driving the country side

You always tried to teach us
And show us the proper way
Like how to drive a nail right
Or the mannerly thing to say

But more important than that
You taught us about life
About the many ups and downs
And taking them in stride

And how to enjoy the little things
Like a sunset in the fall
A rainstorm in the summertime
Or a wintry icy squall

And you taught us in the end, Dad
How to put away your pride
To take the hand of Jesus
And leave this world of strife

We'll never forget the lessons
We learned while at your side
While walking through the backyard
Or driving the country side

You always tried to teach us
And show us the proper way
Like how to drive a nail right
Or the mannerly thing to say

But more important than that
You taught us about life
About the many ups and downs
And taking them in stride

And how to enjoy the little things
Like a sunset in the fall
A rainstorm in the summertime
Or a wintry icy squall

And you taught us in the end, Dad
How to put away your pride
To take the hand of Jesus
And leave this world of strife

In the same way the Spirit [comes to us and] helps us in our weakness. We do not know what prayer to offer or how to offer it as we should, but the Spirit Himself [knows our need and at the right time] intercedes on our behalf with sighs and groanings too deep for words.
