

I'll Remember You

By Regina Keeter Hall

When sand is warm beneath my feet,
When anthems ring out loud and sweet,
When children laugh and talk and play,
When darkness passes into day,

I'll Remember You

When snowflakes flutter to the ground,
When breezes blow without a sound,
When dew drops glisten in bright sunlight,
When evening slips into the night,

I'll Remember You

When dolphins jump from wave to wave,
When autumn leaves begin to fade,
When soft stars twinkle in the sky,
When babies smile, when babies cry,

I'll Remember You

When dancers move in graceful flight,
When music swells to thrilling heights,
When people bow their heads to pray,
When flowers bloom a spring bouquet,

I'll Remember You

My loving mother, I love so much,
I'll miss your smile, I'll miss your touch,
You're with the heavenly angels now,
We'll meet someday....my solemn vow,

I'll Remember You

Keeter, while working at her uncle's grocery store in Fayetteville. They were married in 1946 and began raising a family. They moved and made Carteret County their home in 1959 and continued raising eight children together. Along with the busy life she led as a mother and grandmother, Rebecca enjoyed quilting for many years. She managed the concessions at Worthy is the Lamb passion play for ten years and was a large part of the family restaurant businesses, The Plaza Cafeteria, The Beaufort House, J.C Friends, and Ottis' Restaurant. She also worked at Walmart in the fabric department, where she made many new friends over 20 years and most recently volunteered at Second Blessings Thrift Store. She was hardworking in every aspect of her life. Rebecca dedicated her life to being a wife, mother, and grandmother. She knew what it was to have great loss in her life, having lost her husband, two children and a grandson, among other family members. Despite her great losses, she also knew great joy and always kept her faith in Jesus, her Lord and Savior. She was a beautiful person with a genuine heart. Her departure from this earth leaves a void that will never be filled, but also a great legacy of love, family, and memories that will last a lifetime for her family.
