

*Death is nothing at all.
I have slipped away into the next room.
Whatever we were to each other,
that we still are.
Call me by an old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way you always used.
Laugh as we always laughed
at the jokes we enjoyed together.
Play. Smile. Think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be the household word it always was,
let it be spoken without effort.
Why should I be out of your mind because
I am out of your sight?
I am but waiting for you,
somewhere, very near...around the corner.
All is well. Nothing is past. Nothing is lost.
One brief moment
and all will be as it was before...
only better, infinitely happier, and forever.*

Wilma Frances Barbour, 89, of Newport, passed away on January 7, 2021, at Crystal Bluffs Rehabilitation and Health Care Center.

Her funeral service will be held at 12 p.m., January 11, 2021, at Munden Funeral Home, officiated by Rev. Tom Supplee. Interment will follow at Gethsemane Memorial Park. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

Wilma, or as she was more fondly known, Frances, was born on January 22, 1931, in Clayton, North Carolina, to the late Bud and Emma Brannan. She worked 20 faithful years at Cherry Point in the Food Service area where she was able to display her amazing cooking ability. Wilma loved to travel and especially loved spending time with her family. Relay for Life was an organization that meant a lot to Wilma and she was actively involved in the Carteret County chapter. As a member of the Moose Lodge Ladies Auxiliary in Havelock, Wilma was dedicated to caring for young and old, bringing her community closer together and celebrating life.

She is survived by her daughter, Jennifer Faye Brewer and husband Jerry of Ansonia, Ohio; sons, Ronald Gene Barbour and wife Cathey of Wilmington, Kenneth Ray Barbour and wife Edith of Maysville, and Thomas David Barbour and wife Doloris of Newport; sister, Marcel Brannon of Clayton; grandchildren, Robin Leigh Stephenson of Angier, Kenneth Ray Barbour Jr. and wife Sandra, of Sneads Ferry, Preston Barbour of Cape Coral, FL, Bradley Alspaugh of Ansonia, OH, Crystal Jones and husband Josh of Maysville, Marci Jeffries of Jacksonville, Ashley Lynn Arthur of Huntington, WV, and Melissa Augustus of Jacksonville; step granddaughter, Andrea Spitz of Newport; and 8 great grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 48 years, Joseph "Joe" H. Barbour; sisters, Elizabeth Adams, and Edna Crocker; brothers, D.B. Brannan and Billy Brannan; and grandson, Michael Barbour.

As an expression of sympathy, flowers are welcome or memorial contributions may be made in memory of Wilma to the Relay for Life / American Cancer Society, 930-B Wellness Dr., Greenville NC 27834.
