

*For everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to
Pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to
Refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time for war, and a time for peace.*

James "Jim" Rowland McLean, 67, of Ocean, passed away on Tuesday, March 30, 2021, at his home.

James or "Jim" as he was more commonly known, was born on October 31, 1953, in Lumberton, North Carolina, to Thomas and Joanne McLean. He honorably served our country in the United States Army from 1972 until 1976. Following the military, he attended NC State University. He later worked as an Industrial Engineering Specialist, MCAS Cherry Point, NC, and retired as Facilities Supervisor at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Florida. Living on the coast was a special joy for Jim who loved to fish and enjoyed spending many hours on the water.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline Blades McLean of Ocean; son, John Thomas McLean of Ocean; mother, Joanne McLean of Murphy, NC; brother, Thomas Lester McLean Jr. of Murphy, NC; sister, Cynthia Ann Marcus and husband Darryl of Conway, SC; 2 nephews; 1 great nephew; and 2 great nieces.

Jim was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Lester McLean; and son, Jason Rowland McLean. Jim is now with his best buddy, "Taz", his English Cocker-Spaniel.

As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions, in memory of JR may be made to one of the following, Frontotemporal Dementia, checks can be made payable to AFTD, 2700 Horizon Dr., Suite 120, King of Prussia, PA 19406; Boy Scouts of America, East Carolina Council, P.O.
