

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day
our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

Clyde Randolph Eubanks, 81, of South River, passed away Thursday, October 7, 2021 at Carteret Health Care.

His funeral service will be held at 11 a.m., October 14th, at Maranatha Pentecostal Holiness Church in Beaufort, officiated by Rev. Jacob Snider. The family will receive friends from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. October 13th at the Church.

Clyde was born May 29, 1940 in Carteret County to the late Luther Eubanks, Jr. and Naomi Eubanks. He was a small engine mechanic, who along with his late wife, Marilyn, operated a boating business for over 25 years building boats and running shrimp boats in the Pamlico Sound and up and down the coast. He loved spending time with his family and he loved to smile and bring laughter to others. He was a faithful member of Maranatha Pentecostal Holiness Church.

He is survived by his daughters, Donna Eubanks Jones of Newport, Diana Carol Eubanks of South River, Tammy Bihun Dewitt of South River, and Josie Lewis of Pennsylvania; sons, Ronald Earl Eubanks, and Charles Bihun both of Pennsylvania, and Clyde Randolph Griffin and wife Debbie of Richlands; sisters, Monya Lewis Pake of Bettie, Jennie Lehman of Beaufort, and Tanya Rice of Harlowe; survived by several grandchildren, and great grandchildren also numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, and beloved wife Marilyn Eubanks, he was preceded in death by his daughters, Patricia Ann Eubanks Duke and Terry Bihun Johnson; son, John David Bihun; sister, Linda Robinson; and a brother, Luther "Luke" Eubanks, III.

As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions in memory of Clyde may be made to Maranatha Pentecostal Holiness Church, 130 Airport Rd, Beaufort, NC 28516.
