

Secondhand Mother

On this warm Autumn day

I'd like to write

To a wonderful mother

I've known all my life.

The one who stood by me

whenever I ailed,

And showed me her love with each letter she mailed.

The mom who worried about me

(Too much I might add!)

And told me each hope for me

she'd ever had.

I still had a great mom

A mom like no other.

She may be my Dad's

But she's my Secondhand Mother!

And I love her!
