

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul:

*he leadeth me in the paths of
righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*

Obituary

Betty Locklear Cummings, 75, of Fayetteville passed away with her daughter, Carla by her side on Friday, February 23, 2018.

She was a strong, respected, dignified woman, who raised four children alone while earning her bachelor degree at Pembroke State University. Betty retired from Haverty's where received many awards and honors for being top sales person throughout her years of service.

Betty took pride in her home and loved reading her bible every morning on her porch. She would spend lots of time working in her yard and garden. She also enjoyed the fresh country vegetables that came from her garden.

She loved to serve the Lord and was a faithful and loyal servant of Fayetteville Assembly of God, where she raised her family for many years.

Betty loved her family and was affectionally called "MeMa" by her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Thomas Hall and her sister, Darlene Taylor.

Left to cherish her memory is her daughters, Gail Locklear, Carla Vaughn and husband, David, Wendy Lewis and husband, Tony and Ginger Lowry; a son, Jeff Cummings; a brother, Chester Locklear; and 15 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

- Proverbs 3:5-6
