

If Roses Grow In Heaven...

*If roses grow in Heaven Lord
Please pic a bunch for me.
Place them in my dad's arms
And tell him they're from me.*

*Tell him that I love and miss him
And when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon his cheek
And hold him for a while.*

*Because remembering him is easy
I do it every day.
But there is an ache within my heart
That will never go away.*

In loving memory of my Daddy,

Stephanie

-Obituary-

Raymond Lee "Ned" Sampson, Sr. was born June 2, 1935 in the Giddensville Community to the late Lawrence and Stella Jane Cox Sampson in Clinton, North Carolina.

He attended Sampson Training School in Clinton, NC. He later went on to marry the late Mary Elizabeth Butler and together they raised a loving family in the Mt. Pleasant Community.

Raymond became a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church where he initially joined the Senior Usher's Board and later sang in the Male Chorus.

A gifted craftsman, painter and carpenter, he was employed for many years at Edge's Cabinet Company until his health started to decline.

Never meeting a stranger, Raymond was a very friendly individual and was outgoing as well. His favorite pastime was grilling southern-style chopped BBQ for family members and friends all around.

Along with his loving wife of many years, Raymond was preceded in death by a daughter, Estelle Sampson, grandson, Kenny Melvin and brothers, Nathaniel Sampson, Lawrence Sampson, II, Napoleon Sampson and Howard Sampson.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children, Joann [Jerry] Melvin of Roseboro, NC, Raymond [Carleen] Sampson, Jr. of Fayetteville, NC and Stephanie Elizabeth Sampson of Hope Mills, NC; grandchildren, Michael [Tamela] Melvin, Warren [Heather] Wright, Jr., Demetrius Best, Jason [Trinity] Wright, Destinee' Sampson, Dexter [Laquanta] Sampson and Jessica Melvin; great-grandchildren, Tiffany, SemaJ, Taile'Onna, DeMonte', Tyler, Travon, Jaron, Jaedan, Janiyah, Cameron and Deizel (DK); siblings, Viola Rich of Dudley, NC, Doretha [Bob] Bannister of Nanjemoy, MD and Matthew Sampson of Goldsboro, NC; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
