*To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under the Heavens; a time to be born and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted.*

-Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Mrs. Alease Parker was born on July 16, 1930 in Sampson County, NC to the late Sim and Amie Parker. She answered the call of her Heavenly Father on Sunday, May 23, 2021 at home.

She received her education in Sampson County. A hard worker, she labored on the farm and was a dedicated housekeeper. In her leisure time she enjoyed spending time with her family and cooking. One of her favorite sayings was, “How come He won’t... when He will!” When she wanted to persuade you to eat, she would say, “It’s just as good as it can be!” If you asked her how she felt, she would always say, “I’m alright!”

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Edith Grace, four sisters and six brothers. Those who remain to cherish her precious memories include two daughters, Mary Ellen Parker of Autryville, NC and Linda Parker of Newton Grove, NC; four grandchildren, Wuanessa (Darrius) Woodard, Jameika Parker, Antoinette (Jason) Reese, Bryan (Kellie) Parker; seven great grandchildren; Amoni, Lanessa, Kyle, A.J., Takyla, Terrance and Patience; one brother, Cain Parker of Newark, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

I Am

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am in a thousand winds that blow
I am the softly falling snow.*

*I am the gentle showers of rain
I am the fields of ripening grain.*

*I am in the morning hush
I am in the graceful rush.*

*I am in the flowers that bloom
I am in a quiet room.*

*I am in the birds that sing
I am in each lovely thing.*

*Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there, I did not die.*
